

Part 1

Our Vision and Business Strategies

The Benesse Group engages in business activities and community-based initiatives aimed at improving people's well-being, based on a vision and business strategies focused on how society will continue to change in the years to come. Doing so, we will continue striving to create new value that delivers solutions for customers and their communities.

